

BALKAN WAR CLOUD IS GETTING MORE SERIOUS

BULGAR BANDITS RAID VILLAGES IN JUGO SLAVIA

Depredations of Outlaw Gangs May Cause Complications

FRONTIER GUARDED

Belgrade Preparing For Possible Trouble Holds Reservists

Athens, Sept. 13.—The Balkan war cloud loomed lower today as a result of depredations by Bulgarian irregulars upon Jugo Slavic territory. The Bulgarians cross the frontier Tuesday night and raided the villages.

The irregulars or comitadjis, as they are known in the Balkans, are chiefly of the bandit type. They live in the mountains and have been responsible for much international trouble owing to their raids. At present the Macedonian irregulars are demanding autonomy. Bulgarian officials have announced they may be unable to restrain the irregulars owing to their armed strength.

Activity of the irregulars has increased the tension among Jugo Slavs, Bulgaria and Greece. The frontier guards are being strengthened.

One band of Bulgarians assassinated the police sub-prefect of Serminaka. The inhabitants armed themselves and gave chase, killing five of the raiders. It was rumored that the Serbians had closed their frontier on the Bulgarian side, but this is doubtful.

Reports from Belgrade said the government was barring the departure of reservists between the ages of 18 and 35, fearing that their services might be needed in the field.

The Italian legation today informed the Greek government that September 20 is an Italian holiday. The Greek government had previously notified the allies they were ready to conduct the honorary ceremonies tomorrow. It is denied that Italy has levied any specific financial demand to cover the cost of occupying Corfu.

RESOLUTION ON BISHOPS DELAYED

Cleveland, O., Sept. 13.—Yielding to the request of Bishop W. F. Anderson the presiding bishop of the conference, a resolution declaring that the present life tenure of Methodist Episcopal bishops should be continued, was laid on the table until tomorrow. The resolution will then come up for action at tomorrow's session of the northeast Ohio conference.

In addition to Bishop Anderson, three other bishops of the church were present at today's session. They were:

Bishop E. H. Hughes, of Boston; Bishop McDowell, of Washington, and Bishop Thirkfield, of Mexico City. Election of twelve regular and three reserve delegates to the general conference of the church next year was to follow ordination of a class of candidates for orders.

ARREST COMMUNIST LEADER

Sofia, Sept. 13.—Leaders of the Bulgarian Communists are being arrested. Reports from various quarters today told of more than a score of arrests. The Bulgarian government is said to possess evidence that the communists, under instructions from Moscow, are planning a counter revolution.

HALF MILLION FOR Y. M. C. A.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—S. P. Penn of Cleveland has given $500,000 to the Young Men's Christian association, according to announcement made by Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the association. "The gift, the largest unconditional cash gift ever received from a living donor, will be used chiefly in rebuilding seven Y. M. C. A. branch buildings believed destroyed at Tokyo and Yokohama by the recent earthquake," Dr. Mott said.

OPIUM SEIZED.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—Charges of violating narcotic laws were placed against two men giving their names as William Bulett of Bowling Green, Ky., and Clinton Dorsey of Cleveland, following the seizure of their automobile, discovery of opium valued at $100, and a fist fight with the pair by Narcotic Agent Murphy and two city detectives. Bulett told police the drugs had been purchased.

GROWERS OF WHEAT NOW SEEK RELIEF; COOLIDGE VISITED

Washington, Sept. 13.—President Coolidge agreed to give a hearing to a committee of bankers from the Ninth federal reserve district, who will urge that the United States grain corporation be revived for the relief of wheat growers.

The request was presented by Representative George M. Young, Republican of North Dakota. He said the bankers will come to Washington some day next week, the exact time to be fixed after he communicates with the chairman.

The decision to send a delegation to Washington to confer with the president, Representative Young said, was reached at a recent meeting of bankers of the Ninth district, which embraces the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, northern Wisconsin and northern Michigan. This region forms a large block of the vast wheat area.

In presenting their case the bankers asked that the president call in members of his cabinet whose departments have some connection with the wheat problem. The president readily agreed, also, to the request.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Secretary of Commerce Hoover will "sit in." Secretary Hoover, as federal food administrator during the war, was responsible for creation of the grain corporation.

So critical is the situation among hard wheat growers that the president will be appealed to to call congress into extra session to pass the necessary law reviving the grain corporation. This governmental agency, it is felt, could stabilize wheat prices by bringing about orderly marketing.

In the packets of one of the men was found a Railway M. C. A. card bearing the name of Albert Brown of Secaucus, N. J. Another man was identified by a bricklayers' union card as Harry Mikeas of New York city. The third man, a negro, is unidentified.

MAYOR IS SUMMONED

Lodge, Silver Lake, Summit County, to appear before the Governor here Friday afternoon and answer to charges, in affidavits filed by Silver Lake citizens that the Mayor issued liquor search warrants which were signed in blank.

DAUGHERTY IN REPORT CITES LAW BREAKING

Issues Statement on Enforcement of Liquor Legislation

OVERCAME TROUBLE

Declares He Has Plan Under Which Law Will Be Enforced

Washington, Sept. 13.—In a report to President Coolidge on dry law enforcement, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty revealed what he termed "one of the most tragic epochs in American history relative to law enforcement."

In it Mr. Daugherty pointed out a tendency to disrespect federal prohibition laws and the difficulties under which department of justice agents had labored. "The department of justice has been called upon to prosecute a member of the judiciary, prominent members of the American bar, high officials of the federal and state government, multi-millionaires and sons of the nation's aristocracy," he says in a preliminary survey.

The report reveals also, Mr. Daugherty adds, a sordid story of assassination, bribery and corruption that found its way into the very sanctuaries where inviolability of the law was presumed to have been held sacred.

In spite of these handicaps the attorney general declared the Volstead law is being more strictly enforced than ever before and under a plan which he proposes may be even more effectively enforced. As a record of accomplishment, he reported 72,489 convictions, fines imposed exceeding $12,000,000, and jail sentences totaling 3,000 years.

In bringing this about, he let it be known for the first time, that agents of the department of justice played a major role in securing convictions and that they are everywhere under instructions to co-operate with the dry agents. This policy will be pursued, he said, as will the new plan of sending federal judges and district attorneys from one circuit to another until law violators may be promptly tried and convicted.

Attorney General Daugherty has sent out specific instructions to all agents to launch a relentless campaign to the end that various "cliques" and "rings" and so-called ringleaders in every big city be rounded up and brought to trial with the least possible delay. Federal courts, too, have been directed to work overtime in an effort to clear up dockets, it was stated.

Cases Cited.

The attorney general said that a number of cases in which his agents figured attracted nationwide attention because of the prominence of those concerned.

He cited the case of Mayor Frank X. Schwab of Buffalo, who was tried for manufacturing real beer while campaigning for mayor and fined and convicted while holding that office. Another was the La Montagne brothers, so-called society bootleggers, who were convicted in New Jersey.

In Philadelphia the case of Matthew F. Griffin, former chief of the secret service of Philadelphia, and 11 others, created a sensation, the report declares. Ohio had a good record for law enforcement, Mr. Daugherty said, but furnished one of the most difficult cases the government had to deal with. This was the case of Ben Rudner, in which the principal government witness was slain.

In Wisconsin five prohibition agents, one bank president, one attorney and 14 wholesale liquor dealers were convicted in one general roundup. Among these was Bertram P. Herzog, chief dry agent, sentenced to seven years in jail and fined $16,000. Indiana furnished what is known as the "Gary conspiracy case," said to be one of the largest ever prosecuted. Sixty-three were brought to trial and 55 convicted.

The startling story of prohibition enforcement presented to President Coolidge by Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty has increased enormously the stock of ammunition, which the wets will bring into play against the Volstead act in the approaching session of the new Congress.

This was admitted on all sides today even by the dries themselves. They privately dislike Daugherty's description of present conditions.

YOUTHFUL MESSENGER ROBBED OF $50,000 WORTH OF DIAMONDS

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 13.—A boy who attacked him in the hall of the Travand Jewel Repair Stores. Gus Prodel, the messenger, was knocked down and the box torn from his grasp. The bandits escaped.

MILLIONS IN TREASURE IS SALVAGED

Salvage Ship Racer and Diver

The gold and silver coin and bullion which was sunk when the liner Laurotic was torpedoed by the Germans in 1917 has all been taken from the bottom of the sea by divers operating on the British Admiralty ship Racer. The treasure recovered amounted to $30,000,000. A diver is shown descending to the wreck, while on the deck of the Racer a man may be seen examining the mud sent up from the bottom for traces of gold and silver.

CAPTURED IN STORE.

Marion, O., Sept. 13.—With two cases packed with silks and furs valued at $1,000, two men, giving the names as John Williams, 30, of Dayton, and John R. Murphy, 37, Toledo were captured in the dry goods store of J. H. Rawlings & Son.

GOVERNOR SEEKS TO OUST POOR AS MEMBER OF STATE UTILITIES

Columbus, O., Sept. 13.—Governor Donahay has requested Attorney General Crabbe to "institute ouster proceedings in the State Supreme Court for the purpose of determining the right of George T. Poor, Cincinnati to hold office as a member of the State Utilities Commission." Poor is a Republican.

The governor today displaced Poor as chairman of the commission, designating C. C. Marshall, Sidney, Democratic member of the commission as chairman.

"In my opinion Mr. Poor's sworn ownership of the stock in the Cities Service Company, utterly disqualified him for membership on the commission. Under the opinion of the attorney general, however, I have not the authority to remove him for this cause," Governor Donahay declared in a formal statement.

In his letter to the attorney general, the governor said:

"I do not pretend to be versed in the fine points of the law, but plain old fashioned horse sense convinces me that since larger earnings thru higher rates of their Ohio utilities means larger earnings for the cities company, the said George T. Poor, through his admitted ownership of cities service stock, did acquire a pecuniary interest in certain Ohio utilities under his jurisdiction as a commissioner."

MARTIAL LAW IN STATE CONTINUES

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 13.—Flat rejection of Governor Walton's ultimatum that the sheriff, jury commission and police commissioner must resign before martial law is lifted in Tulsa County indicated today that the city will remain under military rule indefinitely.

The governor told the chamber of commerce he would withdraw troops as soon as officials he charged with being dominated by the Ku Klux Klan, quit.

TO TEACH GERMAN AGAIN AT WOOSTER

Wooster, O., Sept. 13.—For the first time since the entrance of the United States into the world war, classes in German language and literature will be taught at the College of Wooster, it was announced today. German has been offered by the college since the winter of 1918 but this is the first time there has been sufficient demand for it to warrant forming classes. Registrar Charles Compton said.

POLICEMAN SAVES GIRL.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—Heroism of Patrolman Edward Murray saved the life of an unknown little girl, but it nearly cost him his own life. Murray saw the girl dart into the street in front of an approaching auto. A quick dive and a shove placed the child out of danger, but the auto hit Murray, knocking him unconscious. He will recover.

REVOLUTIONARY REVOLT THREATENS TO SWEEP SPAIN; ALARM FELT

Leaders of Military Coup Demand Resignation of Cabinet—Trouble Starts at Barcelona Where Garrison Rebels—King to Take Hand

Madrid, Spain, Sept. 13.—Beginning with a garrison mutiny at Barcelona, a revolutionary revolt began in Spain today. The cabinet defied the leader. A special note was issued by the ministers dealing with the situation and asking the people to remain calm. The revolutionaries demanded the cabinet's resignation.

"Only bayonets will drive us out," was the reply. The note added: "After careful consideration we have decided to remain at our posts. Otherwise we would not be faithful to the nation."

The revolutionaries were reported to have seized telephone and telegraph lines over a wide stretch of territory. Interrupted communication made it difficult to estimate the size of the movement.

It is understood the Seville and Saragossa garrisons have joined the revolutionary leaders.

London, Sept. 13.—A military revolution has broken out in Spain, according to word from Madrid this afternoon.

King Alfonso is rushing to Madrid to intervene.

It is reported the Spanish cabinet will resign.

The trouble started at Barcelona, in Catalonia where the garrison rebelled. General Rivera, the commandant and the captain-general of Catalonia declared martial law.

Appeals were issued to all the garrison commanders in Spain to do like wise to maintain order and prevent a coup by Socialists and Laborites.

The commander of troops in the Catalonia military district is said to be directing the revolutionary movement. A number of public buildings at Barcelona were seized. Numerous labor leaders were arrested for threatening a general strike.

A proclamation issued pledging loyalty of the troops to King Alfonso but accusing the present cabinet of "wrecking the country."

ACTION UNCERTAIN IN BROKERAGE CASE

Cincinnati, Sept. 13.—Federal officials yesterday afternoon ended their investigation into the affairs of the defunct brokerage house of Beazel and Chaffield, recalling the junior partner, former state Senator William H. Chaffield, Jr., to the stand. The firm failed last March.

Following the hearing before Bankruptcy Referee Charles T. Greve, District Attorney Benson W. Hough stated that he was not certain what action would be taken although he admitted his assistant, Haveth E. Mau, had been assigned to listen in.

Mr. Chaffield in 1922 was a nominee for the lieutenant-governorship of Ohio.

DENIAL IS MADE BY FRENCH NATION

Paris, Sept. 13.—A flat denial that France is negotiating with Germany on the Ruhr and reparations, or that Premier Poincare's policy has changed in the slightest degree, was made by an official of the French government.

American readers should know that a reparations settlement is no nearer now than it was on Jan. 11, when France occupied the Ruhr. Germans may cease their "passive resistance," which has become a sort of fetish to the parlor politicians, but this does not mean that the reparations problem is solved, for Germany is in far worse shape to pay now than prior to the occupation of the Ruhr.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. ELECTS.

Columbus, Sept. 13.—Miss Anna Gordon, Evanston, Ill., president of the World W. C. T. U., was re-elected president of the National W. C. T. U. Mrs. Ella A. Boole, Brooklyn, and Mrs. Frances P. Parks, Evanston, Ill., were re-elected vice president at large and corresponding secretary respectively.

ASSASSINS SEIZED.

Lisbon, Sept. 12.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate Premier de Silva of Portugal. The premier was leaving the ministry building when he was attacked by three syndicalists, who were arrested.

TURKS AND GREEKS CLASH.

Athens, Sept. 12.—Four Turks were killed and several wounded during a clash between Turkish and Greek troops on the Maritza river, according to information from Salonika today.

A despatch from Madrid late this afternoon said that garrisons throughout all Spain were rallying to the support of the Catalanian revolt. The Catalanian union telegraphed to the premier, demanding Catalanian autonomy. The premier reported he had recognized the importance of the matter and promised to bring it before parliament.

A despatch from Madrid at 3:30 this afternoon said the revolution was spreading rapidly.

REHABILITATION WORK IN JAPAN TO START SOON

Cremation of Bodies Continues—Officials Express Thanks

Tokio, Sept. 13.—Vice Minister Tanaka Gaimusho called on American Ambassador Cyrus E. Woods today to officially thank the United States for the leading part that the nation has taken in rushing help to the stricken area of Japan.

The cremation of bodies continues throughout Tokio and Yokohama. Debris is being cleared away as rapidly as possible and the actual work of rehabilitation is expected to start within a week or ten days.

An official investigation is being made of Yokohama harbor to determine whether the upheaval of the port bottom will interfere with the future activity and usefulness of the once great Japanese seaport.

Tokio presents a gruesome scene. The silence of the devastated sections is oppressive. In spite of the efficient work of the sanitary corps many bodies still remain in plain view among the ruins.

Slight earth tremors continue to instill fear in the hearts of thousands of refugees. However, no material damage has resulted from these quakes.

The youngest daughter of American trade commissioner E. G. Babbitt was trapped in the lobby of the Grand hotel here at the time of the great earthquake and perished in the flames that subsequently mantled the building.

Mrs. Babbitt who was undergoing a massage treatment when the terrible shock struck, had a miraculous escape when she was led by another daughter through flying wreckage and falling debris to a place of safety in the open street.

American Commercial Attache Abbott's family escaped harm. First reports had it that it was Abbott's daughter who was burned to death in the ruins of the Grand hotel but is now established beyond a doubt that the unfortunate girl was the youngest daughter of Trade Commissioner Babbitt.

Food is plentiful throughout the earthquake and fire region.

So far no serious outbreak of pestilence has taken place.

POLICE NIP PLOT ON BOGUS TICKETS

New York, Sept. 13.—An extensive but poorly executed plot to flimflam the public with fake Dempsey-Firpo fight tickets was nipped, but evidently not before many tickets had been sold, by a raid of detectives on a downtown printing plant. Six thousand of the bogus pasteboards, poor imitations of the real ringside $27.50 and $5 seat tickets, were seized, together with plates from which they were printed. Five men and a boy, charged with printing and selling them, were locked up at police headquarters. The ramifications of the plot extended to Boston, Philadelphia and nearby cities, and the police there were notified by wire by Promoter Tex Rickard of the big scheme.

COLLECTS $119.20 ON ALLEGED CHARGE

Findlay, O., Sept. 13.—Thomas Linger, prominent grain dealer, will get $119.20 from Mayor Harry Rodabaugh for alleged false imprisonment, under a verdict on file in common pleas court today.

The suit in which Linger asked for $10,000 was the outcome of his imprisonment following failure to pay a fine of $50 assessed by the mayor for nonpayment of a city water bill. He was held in the city jail for one day and night.

DOG GIVES ALARM WHEN BARN BURNS CAUSING $5,000 LOSS

The barking of the family dog aroused members of the family of L. R. Pearson near Osborn Wednesday night when fire of unknown origin completely destroyed a barn and contents with a loss estimated at $5,000.

Aroused by the dog, Pearson was able to save a Dodge touring car which he backed from the burning barn an instant before the hay now crashed in. The fire started about 9:30 o'clock and Pearson investigated after the family rolled had come to the door barking the second time.

The barn, a frame structure, was entirely destroyed with all contents with the exception of the motor. Including 12 tons of alfalfa, 40 tons of timothy, 140 bushels of wheat, a tractor, binder and other farm implements and some harness and other farm equipment. The volunteer fire departments from Osborn, Fairfield and Wilbur Wright field answered the call for assistance and succeeded in saving the house and other buildings from destruction. Bucket brigades were formed to fight the flames.

With the exception of a few chickens no livestock was lost. Only a small amount of insurance was carried.

Studebaker Light-Six
Touring Car
$995

Don't Measure This Car By the Price

There is no product where price so fails to indicate value as in a motor car.

The difference in prices rarely represents a corresponding difference in values. Cars are being offered at prices greatly in excess of the Studebaker Light-Six which do not equal its intrinsic value.

Likewise, many cars selling for less, are high-priced compared with the Light-Six. They are not in the same class because they do not represent as great intrinsic value for the money invested. The Studebaker Light-Six is the real quality car in the thousand-dollar field.

The low price of the Light-Six is due to Studebaker's vast physical and financial resources, the saving of middlemen's profits by reason of complete manufacture in Studebaker plants, and low manufacturing and sales overhead per car because of continuous large volume.

The satisfaction delivered by the Light-Six is universal. Its performance has won staunch friends everywhere. This is due to its advanced design and construction.

For example, the crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces. This practice, which is largely responsible for its virtual freedom from vibration, is exclusive with Studebaker on cars within hundreds of dollars of the Light-Six price.

If you are thinking of investing about one thousand dollars in a car, then in justice to yourself, consider the Studebaker Light-Six first. Come in and see it. Drive it yourself. Driving is believing.

NO "ENTANGLING" ALLIANCE FOR US.

"America First" is going to remain the dominant feature of the government's foreign policy under the Coolidge administration, according to all indications. The communication which Secretary of State Hughes has transmitted to American embassies abroad for their guidance on the matter of reparations, the authoritative indication of President Coolidge's attitude on foreign debts owed to the United States, and information from the White House concerning the President's stand on other foreign questions are to be judged primarily with relation to their bearing on American interests. It goes without saying that the question of justice in dealings between other nations themselves, is to be of paramount consideration, and it may be added that humanitarian considerations will not be minimized. But the Coolidge administration will not lose sight of the fact that its first duty is to the people of the United States. Internationalists who believe it is America's duty to sacrifice the interests of its citizens, as well as American independence, for the benefit of mankind probably will not find much consolation. Likewise, foreign statesmen who may have hoped that President Coolidge would make haste to involve the United States in the present European crisis will be disappointed.

"WHAT DO I THINK? IT'S A WASTE OF MONEY!"

Calvin Coolidge never has been a spendthrift. He always has lived within his rather limited means. Economy has ruled his life. And in holding various public offices he has been as sparing in spending the taxpayers' money as he has been in spending his own. He never has known luxury or craved for it. It is recalled that when he was the party's nominee for Vice President in 1920 he was sent on a campaign speaking trip. A special train was provided for his tour to several states. It was a train with regular beds, shower baths, a barber shop and other modern conveniences. With pride an official showed Mr. Coolidge through the train from one end to the other.

"What do you think of it?" he was asked at the end of the inspection.

"I think it is a waste of money," was his astonishing reply.

BURNING MINE STILL RESISTS EFFORTS TO PUT OUT BLAZE.

The Summit Hill, Pa., Burning Mine, perhaps the most famed curiosity in the entire anthracite region, and which was discovered on February 15, 1859, near the very spot where Philip Ginter, the lonely hunter, discovered anthracite in 1791, is still on fire, and is slowly making its way westward toward the mammoth coal vein running through the Panther Creek Valley, said to be the richest vein of anthracite in the world.

The subterranean conflagration has traveled more than a mile since it was first discovered, and since that time has devoured hundreds of thousands of tons of the best and finest grade of anthracite, estimated to be worth several millions of dollars.

The mine in which the fire started was opened for operation in 1850, more than seventy-three years ago, and millions of dollars have since been spent by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, the owner of the land on which the fire is raging, in a vain effort to stop the progress of the fire.

The burning mine has virtually devoured all the rich layer of anthracite in the vicinity of Summit Hill, so that there is no more coal being mined on the hill. All the coal now being mined is taken from the rich veins running through the Panther Creek Valley, more than half a mile below Summit Hill.

Thousands of people annually visit Summit Hill to see the burning mine, and there isn't an excursionist coming over the Switchback Railroad, or any other way, that would think of leaving it without seeing the burning mine. If the tourist happens to come at the right time he will be rewarded by seeing the fire, while, at other times, he will see nothing more than thin sheets of vapor and steam issuing through the crevices in the earth.

THE PIED PIPER REVERSED

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

Mr. William Kauffman, the architect for the new $20,000 Carnegie Library to be erected on East Church Street, in this city, arrived in Xenia this morning and the preparations will at once be begun for the erection of the building.

cept the dining room; but the living room is the gathering-place of the family and is used more than any other room. It should never be allowed to become monotonous and uninviting.

"But how can I change it when I can't afford to buy new cretonnes?" responded a Housekeeper Friend of mine, to whom I had expounded this theory.

I made, with her, a tour of inspection, going from first to third floor of her pretty little home.

"There," I said triumphantly, as I reached her bedroom door: "Why not hang those cretonne overdrapes at the living room windows, and put the living room ones up here?"

Her bedroom color scheme was pink and gray (pink wall paper, rag rugs, bureau-runner and lamp shade and gray cretonne overdrapes in a leaf pattern).

She took my advice, using old blue and gray in the living room. The former bedroom draperies were most dignified downstairs. The brown ones which had been in the living room looked equally well up in her room, with the pink things.

Almost every housekeeper makes a few changes in her home as September comes around. Although she may not be able to afford papering and painting, she can at least make some inexpensive improvements along the lines of interior decoration.

It is surprising what a difference even the simplest changes make in our homes. Unconsciously our eyes weary of the familiar hangings, or of a certain arrangement of furnishings. We welcome fresh surroundings.

Of course I do not mean that our ornaments and furniture should be discarded for new; for our possessions become dear to us, a part of ourselves. I simply mean that they should be differently arranged, from time to time, and given a new background.

I believe that the housekeeper should change the color-scheme of her living room every five years. The other rooms of the house do not matter as much--unless we ex-

YOUTH

With the lil' of a song on his lips
And the glint of the sun in his eye,
Which seldom a frown will eclipse
A roguish fellow goes by.

You can tell by the tilt of his head
By the charm of his voice and its tone,
By the grace and the spring of his tread,
That never a care has he known.

His shoulders are broad and full square,
His back is as straight as a pine,
The color's still fresh in his hair
Which has long ago faded from mine.

Here is youth, clean and supple and strong;
Here is unburdened youth, passing by--
Oh, the years have been many and long
Since such a young fellow was I.

Yet time was I sang as does he,
And time was I laughed as I went;
Now age with its cares burdens me
And the best of my courage is spent.

Brave boy, sing your songs while you may,
Too soon you shall look back as I,
When your temples are wearing the gray
And some roguish young fellow goes by.

Today's Talk

THE CUP OF BEAUTY

Nature is lavish in her gifts to him who is able to understand and appreciate.

To him she would bare her heart and open every window and door and bid him enter it as his very own. She would throw her soul at his feet and completely surrender her bodily life.

And then she would offer her immortal drink--the cup of beauty.

But there is no one who has ever drained it to its last. For beauty, more intoxicating than any wine, increases in its volume the more it is drained. Drink and you shall be exquisitely refreshed--though never quite fully satisfied.

It is this unexpressed, mysterious element of the unrevealed that inspires the poet, the painter, the musician, the artist, to seek heavenly quests and to want an intimate and continual touch with the personality of the Creator.

Just look into the night sky tonight. Do you tire of its beauty? Could the stars ever grow old in their fascinating appeal, their eternal silence?

Can you explain the diamond, the ruby, the emerald, the opal? Have you any answer for the gypsy dress of the pansy?

Remember that the tiniest songster drinks from the same cup of beauty that you do. And he, too, is never satisfied. Day upon day will he attempt to quench his thirsty soul, though never succeeding--for his song will be of him a part so long as life is his.

God's hear is a cup of beauty, and only as we drink from it in humility and in reverent faith, are we worthy to qualify as citizens of the Universe.

Strive as we will, still there remains in longing that which we cannot explain--though we know in our heart of hearts that beauty has entered the form and fiber of our being and made of us something useful and helpful in the world.

TOUGH SCHEDULE FACES XENIA HIGH PLAYERS THIS FALL

Although a complete football schedule for Coach Earl Burner's Central High gridders has not yet been arranged by John R. Beacham business manager, enough contests have been booked to assure the bugs the eleven will face another tough season.

The cream of grid talent within the same class as Xenia Central will be found on the schedule this year with few variations. Containing the policy of remaining within the proper sphere of high schools of this size, games with Class A teams are still absent from the list.

In keeping within the confines of the Class B loop, as specified in the rules of competition for the Miami University cup, which Xenia has twice won, Mr. Beacham turned down a flattering offer from George Eastman, of Steele High, for a game with Roland Beavan's playmates October 27.

Eastman offered Central the date for a morning game, with a promise to furnish tickets to all the visiting players for the annual Miami-Denison tilt in the afternoon. In answering Mr. Beacham reminded the Steele official that athletic relations between these schools in the past have not been pleasant and that further, in the belief Central should keep within its proper sphere, that the game would not be accepted. Strained relations have always followed contests with Dayton teams as fans here remember.

Nine games will be played by the blue and white gridders this fall, beginning with the tilt here with Wilmington, September 28. The Quakers, ancient rivals of the local school, were inadvertently left off the schedule last year, and considerable effort was put forth to get the Wilmington school back in line. The Quakers did not lose a letter man from last year's team by graduation and for an opening encounter, the locals should have their hands full with Coach Black's pastimers.

October 5 and 12 are so far open dates on the local calendar, although an effort is being made to book Miamisburg here for one of these days. Greenville, which team Xenia opened with last year, defeating 12 to 0, will be played at Greenville October 20. Springfield, defeated handsily in each game played in the last two years, will be played here October 26 or 27. The game has been booked for Saturday but will be changed to Friday if possible because of conflict with the Ohio-Iowa game at Columbus.

Considerable pressure had to be brought to bear on Springfield school officials to force Springfield into a game here. There has never been any trouble in the athletic relations with Coach Oliver Matheny's warriors, but perhaps the two defeats handed the Springfielders in the last two years may have borne down heavy on Matheny's pets to influence them to avoid Xenia in the future.

Franklin High will be a newcomer on the schedule, not having appeared here in recent years. The game with Franklin will be played November 2. November 10 is still an open date, but London High is expected for a game November 16. Last year London held the crack Central High team to a scoreless tie at London, a blemish that will have to be cleared up this fall.

Washington C. H., another old rival, coached by Warren Vannorsdall, former Xenia High star, will be met at Washington November 23. Washington was defeated in the opening game at Washington two years ago and bowed to the locals here last season. It is safe to say that Coach Vannorsdall would like very well to hand the locals a lacing.

Piqua High is scheduled on the contracts for November 27. As that date is after Thanksgiving, when the season usually ends, it is a question of whether the date was picked accidentally and whether Piqua will want to play then. Manager Beacham has written Piqua officials to see if they can move the game up to an earlier date and the contest may be booked for November 10, an open date on the local calendar. Greenfield will also probably be played, as football contests between these schools have come to be an annual affair, but if the game is arranged it will probably be played there on an early date in the schedule.

Just now Coach Burner is priming his athletes for the opening game with Wilmington, believed to be one of the toughest teams on the schedule. Xenia has defeated Wilmington all games played in the last two years, but this fact does not detract from the fact that the Quakers are boasting one of the best teams in years. Burner had his pets out on the green Tuesday evening, limbering up joints.

KIWANIS RESUMES WEEKLY MEETINGS

Kiwanis opened its fall meetings Wednesday evening at the Elks' Club, after a month of suspended gatherings, with an informal program of singing, and short talks. Original words, written by members to a number of club songs featured the meeting.

Twenty-five dollars was voted by the club to the Red Cross Japanese relief fund. A sum was also donated to the Kiwanis Baby Clinic which is held weekly in the Social Service Headquarters under the direction of Dr. H. C. Messedger.

DOCTORS WANTED TO OPERATE

Mrs. Quillon Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from an Operation

Muskegon, Michigan.—"After doctoring for eight or nine years with different physicians without any relief at all, they said at last that medicine would not reach my case and I should have an operation. I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and often saw it advertised in different papers where some women had suffered just as I did and got well and strong again by taking the Vegetable Compound. I decided to see what it would do for me, and before I had finished the fourth bottle I was much better, the weakness stopped and the severe pains in my sides left me. I am now much stronger and do my own work and work in the factory besides. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and give it all the praise."—Mrs. NELLIE QUILLON, 17 Morris St., Muskegon, Mich.

Women should heed such warning symptoms as bearing-down pains and weakness, for they indicate some female trouble, and a persistent and faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will seldom fail to help.

BANK ON JULY 11

Dayton, Sept. 12.—Three men held at Greenville for the robbery of the Hollansburg Bank, July 11, denied connection with the safe robbery of the Holland Broad Company, Dayton, last Saturday or other Dayton safe robberies after questioning by Dayton police.

Although grilled until an early hour Wednesday the men will be put through further examination. The men, J. J. All three are said to have signed a confession made by Webster.

The same jury indicted Eugene "Red" Webb, Mrs. Jean Foley and Burton Carter, all of Springfield, who are held in Greenville as suspects in the robbery of the Farmers' National Bank there a short time ago. Webb and the Foley woman are believed to be implicated in other robberies in that section.

BISHOP WELCH SAFE.

Delaware, O., Sept. 12.—Friends here have had a cablegram from Bishop Herbert Welch, former president of Ohio Wesleyan university, stating that he and his family are safe in Japan. Much concern was held for Bishop Welch's safety.

How Mothers Friend
aids Expectant Mothers
at Child-birth

THERE are thousands of expectant mothers who undergo much useless suffering for months before, as well as at the moment when delivery occurs. These months of suffering, with nerves and vital organs weakened, leave their effect upon the child. An eminent physician found the way to stop much of this unnecessary suffering—the same easy way which thousands of mothers have used for three generations.

Mrs. Walter S. Hadley, Bridgeport, Ind., says: "Before my little boy came I was so paralyzed in my hips and limbs I could hardly walk, and some days after a little extra exertion I couldn't walk a step. I felt it coming on this time; in fact, I could hardly get up when I sat down, but now, after using one bottle of Mother's Friend, I am so much better. I feel that I almost owe my life to Mother's Friend."

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor, because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

Time Thins O. V. I. Ranks Veterans Session Shows

A touch of pathos rang through the impassioned speech of John W. Hedges, of Xenia, delivered from the floor of the fifty-fourth annual convention of the Seventy-fourth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry at the afternoon session in the rooms of Lewis Post, G. A. R. Court House Wednesday.

Answering the movement that two years ago resulted in the veterans of the civil conflict relinquishing the wheel of their organization to a group of women composed of daughters of members, Mr. Hedges declared that the members 52 years ago had pledged to keep the association intact and that to drop the burden on the shoulders of the women was not keeping faith with those who died.

Time had convinced members of the little band able to meet in convention, that they should lean more heavily on the shoulders of a younger generation in order to preserve the association. They took action this way in the vote when they re-elected all officers. They are: Mrs. Mary Wetzel Pacey Dayton, president; Mrs. C. C. Moon, Jamestown, vice president; Mrs. Nellie Barnett Blackett, secretary; J. H. McPherson, treasurer and Miss Amy St. John, chairman of the executive committee. Mr. Hedges declined the office of permanent honorary chairman to which he was elected two years ago and to which he was re-elected last year.

Mrs. Moon presided at the sessions Wednesday in place of Mrs. Pacey and in the afternoon, after a brief morning business session during which the report of the treasurer, J. H. McPherson, was given, the little band of 11 present held memorial services for four who died during the past year. They were William Wilson, Company T; Philip Iman, Company A; H. H. Long, Company A, and W. S. Sellers, Company E.

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church conducted a campfire in the afternoon, addressing the veterans and leading them in old songs. The Rev. Mr. Nocka, of Louisville, spoke briefly and John Lander, Dayton, of the Thirty-fifth infantry, gave reminiscences of Civil War days. T. J. North, Vandalia, replied to the welcoming address made Wednesday morning by Judge H. L. Smith, president of the City Commission.

Although only 11 veterans registered at the convention, more than that number sent regrets and were there in spirit when their letters were read. Of the 1,200 original members of the Regiment, 700 were from Greene County and about 150 from Xenia. Of the total number only a little more than 100 still live.

Comrades present Wednesday were: H. H. Cassell, David Benard, Michael Benard and T. J. North, Vandalia; Nelson Smith, Jamestown; John DeVoe, Wilmington; Henry Hopping, Spring Valley; John Murphy, Colma; George W. Moore, J. W. Hedges and J. H. McPherson, of Xenia.

Letters were read from J. R. Milner, California; H. H. Herring, Minnesota; S. W. Collins, Indiana; Harrison Galloway, Ohio; William T. Weimore, Illinois; H. R. Tinsley, Indiana; R. C. Parr, Iowa; John Curry, Ohio; J. A. Sheffield, Oregon; Thomas Busch, Indiana; Robert Baker, Kansas and Edward C. Snyder, Indiana. There were letters also from Mrs. Julia Galloway Olds and Mrs. William Gray, daughters of former members.

Jane Matilda Wood

Jane Matilda Wood, daughter of Isaac and Rhoda Stump was born near New Burlington, Ohio June 23, 1853 and departed this life September 7, 1923, aged 70 years, 2 months and 16 days. Twenty six years of her life was spent on the farm of her father, most of which time, was spent in caring for the invalid father, mother and brother.

July 3, 1879 she was united in marriage to Joshua Wood, who preceded her in death, 3 1/2 years ago. To this union were born seven children, six of whom survive—Charles, Harry and Florence at home, Mrs. Roy, Harvey of New Burlington, Mrs. Horace Wharton and Mrs. C. P. Vickers of Dayton; beside these she leaves five grandchildren, one brother and a number of nephews and nieces.

The life that has just closed was filled with many trials and hardships. For twelve years she has been in failing health, the last four years of her life being absolutely helpless. But through it all she has borne her affliction patiently.

A week ago she developed pneumonia and in her weakened condition she was unable to resist it, and on Friday evening as the sun was going to rest, she quietly slipped away.

During her early life she was converted and attended the Methodist church. In after years she became a member of the Home Department of the Friends Church, being a member about 25 years. She enjoyed the friendship of numbers of people and greatly enjoyed their visits during her last illness.

"There is a world above where parting is unknown, A long eternity of love, Formed for the good alone, And faith beholds the dying here Translated to that happier sphere."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness in the sickness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. Jane Wood, Rev. Hawkins for his beautiful consoling words, those who sent flowers or helped us in any way, also Birch Arthur the undertaker for the way in which he conducted the funeral. SQUIRREL SEASON OPENS SATURDAY NIMRODS NOTIFIED

Anticipating the advent of the first hunting season, when the open season on squirrels begins Saturday, September 15, Karl Keller, Deputy State Game Protector, has written advice to Nimrods, who expect to take advantage of the new season. He says:

"Saturday, September 15, opens the 1923 season on squirrels. The bag limit is five squirrels a day. There is a penalty of $25 to $200 for possessing more than five squirrels in any one day.

"The season will open next Monday, September 17, on wild ducks, geese and brant, plover, jack snipe, yellow legs, black billed and golden plovers, greater and lesser yellow legs, Wilson snipe or jacksnipe. Bag limit is 15 snipes that may be taken and possessed in any one day during the open season.

"Be sure and get your hunting license before going hunting. The fine for hunting without a license is $25 to $200. Be sure to get permission from those in charge of the lands upon which you wish to hunt. The fine for hunting without permission is $10 to $50. Don't destroy trees and shrubbery. Be careful of fences and live stock. Be careful also of fires and don't abuse the farmer if he refuses you permission to hunt. He may change his mind and grant you permission some other time. Don't try to bag all the game the first day and "cuss" if you fail to get the limit the next time you go hunting.

"Farmers are urged to grant permission when possible as a day off with the gun affords real pleasure to those who are cooped up in an office, store or factory.

"Urging both the sportsmen and farmers to regard each other with friendship and requesting that any violations of the game laws that come to your notice be reported to me by mail or phone. I am yours for good, clean sport.

Karl Keller."

Slaughter of the red squirrels in this section during the hunting season, is said to be justified by the fact that this type of squirrel makes itself particularly objectionable by destroying the eggs and young of useful birds and spends much of its time searching out nests in the trees. Evidence against the red squirrel shows that his depredations are such as to make it necessary to keep down his number if insectivorous birds are to flourish.

The late John Burroughs said: "Nearly all the birds look upon it as their enemy and attack and annoy it when it appears near their breeding haunts. Thus I have seen the pewee, the cuckoo, the robin and the wood thrush pursuing it with angry voice and gestures. If you wish the birds to breed and thrive in your orchards and groves, kill every red squirrel that infests the place."

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

PRIDE PREVENTS APPEALING FOR HELP

Chapter XXVI

By sewing constantly I was able to keep the two rooms and care for my two little girls. Occasionally I received a remittance from Paul, never more than $25 or $30 always with the information that his living cost was more than I would believe. I told him it was also growing more expensive at home explained that I was sewing. He replied that he was glad I had found something to occupy my time, that otherwise I might be lonely. Then added:

"Don't work too hard. I'll be home soon and then we'll really live."

I longed to help in war work, as Evelyn and others were doing, but it was impossible. Just to care for the children, earn the necessary money was all I could do, all my health would allow. When I spoke of it to Evelyn she said:

"You are doing your bit, Ruby. God will give you just as much credit as if you knit sweaters or managed a canteen."

But I often wondered how many wives were situated as I was, wives who because of the absence of the wage earner had to put aside even their patriotism to care for the family left behind?

I often wondered also if Paul would come home with more stability of character, a more generous view of his fellows a different attitude toward life. In spite of my suffering, for I did suffer, I still loved Paul. I longed to have him with me. I had long ago given up my friends, all but Evelyn Markham. I had sacrificed them on the altar of Paul's irresponsibility.

Often I thought of appealing to father for help and as often dismissed the idea. I never would let him know to what straits I had been reduced. I had married Paul against his wishes and knew his ideas concerning a married man's supporting his family. Brother Tom was "over there" fighting. Sometimes I fancied it would be easier to bear if Paul were also fighting. His letters, short though they were, invariably carried the tone of gay times in his beloved Paris.

Assuredly, had Tom been at home I should have at least asked his advice. As it was I felt I must stand alone, sink or swim as might be. I craved sympathy and help. I received neither.

I was very unhappy, hard as I tried to conceal it. How can a woman, separated from her husband, her friends, constantly fretted by poverty—and worse, by uncertainty, be happy?

Occasionally as the months and years passed I received a larger check from Paul. Once he sent me $100. But dared not halt in my efforts for a moment. His remittances were too uncertain, too long a time often passed between them.

I knew there was excitement all about me, that never had people been so aroused as they were in the midst of the great war; yet I lived as detached an existence as if all the world were at peace behind closed doors.

I had grown thin, old-looking. I was shabby had made over my clothes until there was no longer anything I could do with them. I went nowhere, unless it was to return work given me; then I went after dark when my shabbiness might perhaps be less noticeable. The children had to be kept looking nicely. Joan had declared she would run away if she couldn't have things other girls had, look as well. She frightened me. I knew she was capable of making her threat good, so spent nothing on myself that I might give her more. I did not want her to be embarrassed before her young friends.

Joan was growing very like Paul. She loved the niceties of life, was inclined to be snobbish, thought good ones knows, she had no reason. Like her father, she argued she had always had things, should continue to.

There was little of interest happened to me in those long years of war, little to retail. One day, one month, one year, was just like the preceding one—a constant struggle.

Then one day there came a bulky letter from Paul.

BALKAN WAR CLOUD IS GETTING MORE SERIOUS

BULGAR BANDITS RAID VILLAGES IN JUGO SLAVIA

Depredations of Outlaw Gangs May Cause Complications

FRONTIER GUARDED

Belgrade Preparing For Possible Trouble Holds Reservoirs

Athens, Sept. 13.—The Balkan war cloud loomed lower today as a result of depredations by Bulgarian irregulars upon Jugo Slavic territory. The Bulgarians cross the frontier Tuesday night and raided the villages. The irregulars or comitadjis, as they are known in the Balkans, are chiefly of the bandit type. They live in the mountains and have been responsible for much international trouble owing to their raids. At present the Macedonian irregulars are demanding autonomy. Bulgarian officials have announced they may be unable to restrain the irregulars owing to their armed strength.

Activity of the irregulars has increased the tension among Jugo Slavs, Bulgaria and Greece. The frontier guards are being strengthened.

One band of Bulgarians assassinated the police sub-prefect of Serminaka. The inhabitants armed themselves and gave chase, killing five of the raiders. It was rumored that the Serbians had closed their frontier on the Bulgarian side, but this is doubtful. Reports from Belgrade said the government was barring the departure of reservists between the ages of 18 and 35, fearing that their services might be needed in the field.

The Italian legation today informed the Greek government that September 20 is an Italian holiday. The Greek government had previously notified the allies they were ready to conduct the honorary ceremonies tomorrow. It is denied that Italy has levied any specific financial demand to cover the cost of occupying Corfu.

RESOLUTION ON BISHOPS DELAYED

Cleveland, O., Sept. 13.—Yielding to the request of Bishop W. F. Anderson the presiding bishop of the conference, a resolution declaring that the present life tenure of Methodist Episcopal bishops should be continued, was laid on the table until tomorrow. The resolution will then come up for action at tomorrow's session of the northeast Ohio conference.

In addition to Bishop Anderson, three other bishops of the church were present at today's session. They were:

Bishop E. H. Hughes, of Boston; Bishop McDowell, of Washington, and Bishop Thirkield, of Mexico City. Election of twelve regular and three reserve delegates to the general conference of the church next year was to follow ordination of a class of candidates for orders.

HALF MILLION FOR Y. M. C. A.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—S. P. Fenn of Cleveland has given $500,000 to the Young Men's Christian association, according to announcement made by Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the association. "The gift, the largest unconditional cash gift ever received from a living donor, will be used chiefly in rebuilding seven Y. M. C. A. branch buildings believed destroyed at Tokyo and Yokohama by the recent earthquake," Dr. Mott said.

OPIUM SEIZED.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—Charges of violating narcotic laws were placed against two men giving their names as William Bulett of Bowling Green, Ky., and Clinton Dorsey of Cleveland, following the seizure of their automobile, discovery of opium valued at $100, and a fist fight with the pair by Narcotic Agent Murphy and two city detectives. Bulett told police the drugs had been purchased.

SPENT HUNDRED MILLION IN WORK

Gordon Brown, shown here at his desk in Washington, is in charge of the Purchasing and Transportation Department of the American Red Cross and is buying all the supplies now being sent to stricken Japan. He has spent more than $100,000,000 for the Red Cross since he has held his present post.

GROWERS OF WHEAT NOW SEEK RELIEF; COOLIDGE VISITED

Washington, Sept. 13.—President Coolidge agreed to give a hearing to a committee of bankers from the Ninth federal reserve district, who will urge that the United States grain corporation be revived for the relief of wheat growers.

The request was presented by Representative George M. Young, Republican of North Dakota. He said the bankers will come to Washington some day next week, the exact time to be fixed after he communicates with the chairman.

The decision to send a delegation to Washington to confer with the president, Representative Young said, was reached at a recent meeting of bankers of the Ninth district, which embraces the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, northern Wisconsin and northern Michigan. This region forms a large block of the vast wheat area.

In presenting their case the bankers asked that the president call in members of his cabinet whose departments have some connection with the wheat problem. The president readily agreed, also, to the request.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Secretary of Commerce Hoover will "sit in." Secretary Hoover, as federal food administrator during the war, was responsible for creation of the grain corporation.

So critical is the situation among hard wheat growers that the president will be appealed to to call congress into extra session to pass the necessary law reviving the grain corporation. This governmental agency, it is felt, could stabilize wheat prices by bringing about orderly marketing.

Another man was identified by a bricklayer's union card as Harry Milkes of New York city. The third man, a negro, is unidentified.

DAUGHERTY IN REPORT CITES LAW BREAKING

Issues Statement on Enforcement of Liquor Legislation

OVERCAME TROUBLE

Declares He Has Plan Under Which Law Will Be Enforced

Washington, Sept. 13.—In a report to President Coolidge on dry law enforcement, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty revealed what he termed "one of the most tragic epochs in American history relative to law enforcement."

In it Mr. Daugherty pointed out a tendency to disrespect federal prohibition laws and the difficulties under which department of justice agents had labored. "The department of justice has been called upon to prosecute a member of the judiciary, prominent members of the American bar, high officials of the federal and state government, multi-millionaires and scions of the nation's aristocracy," he says in a preliminary survey.

The report reveals also, Mr. Daugherty adds, a sordid story of assassination, bribery and corruption that found its way into the very sanctums where inviolability of the law was presumed to have been held sacred.

In spite of these handicaps the attorney general declared the Volstead law is being more strictly enforced than ever before and under a plan which he proposes may be even more effectively enforced. As a record of accomplishment, he reported 72,489 convictions, fines imposed exceeding $12,000,000, and jail sentences totaling 3,000 years.

In bringing this about, he let it be known for the first time, that agents of the department of justice played a major role in securing convictions and that they are everywhere under instructions to co-operate with the dry agents. This policy will be pursued, he said, as will the new plan of sending federal judges and district attorneys from one circuit to another until law violators may be promptly tried and convicted.

Attorney General Daugherty has sent out specific instructions to all agents to launch a relentless campaign to the end that various "cliques" and "rings" and so-called ringleaders in every big city be rounded up and brought to trial with the least possible delay. Federal courts, too, have been directed to work overtime in an effort to clear up dockets, it was stated.

Cases Cited.

The attorney general said that a number of cases in which his agents figured attracted nationwide attention because of the prominence of those concerned.

He cited the case of Mayor Frank X. Schwab of Buffalo, who was tried for manufacturing real beer while campaigning for mayor and fined and convicted while holding that office. Another was the La Montagne brothers, so-called society bootleggers, who were convicted in New Jersey.

In Philadelphia the case of Matthew F. Griffin, former chief of the secret service of Philadelphia, and 11 others, created a sensation, the report declares. Ohio had a good record for law enforcement, Mr. Daugherty said, but furnished one of the most difficult cases the government had to deal with. This was the case of Ben Rindner, in which the principal government witness was slain.

In Wisconsin five prohibition agents, one bank president, one attorney and 14 wholesale liquor dealers were convicted in one general roundup. Among these was Bertram P. Herzog, chief dry agent, sentenced to seven years in jail and fined $16,000. Indiana furnished what is known as the "Gary conspiracy case," said to be one of the largest ever prosecuted. Sixty-three were brought to trial and 55 convicted.

The startling story of prohibition enforcement presented to President Coolidge by Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty has increased enormously the stock of ammunition, which the wets will bring into play against the Volstead act in the approaching session of the new Congress.

This was admitted on all sides today even by the drys themselves. They privately dislike Daugherty's description of present conditions.

YOUTHFUL MESSENGER ROBBED OF $50,000 WORTH OF DIAMONDS

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 13.—A boy who attacked him in the hall of the Travlers Jewel Repair Stores, containing $50,000 worth of diamonds was stolen from a sixteen-year-old messenger boy today by two bandits, his grasp. The bandits escaped.

MILLIONS IN TREASURE IS SALVAGED

Salvage Ship Racer & Diver

The gold and silver coin and bullion which was sunk when the liner Laurentic was torpedoed by the Germans in 1917 has all been taken from the bottom of the sea by divers operating on the British Admiralty ship Racer. The treasure recovered amounted to $30,000,000. A diver is shown descending to the wreck, while on the deck of the Racer a man may be seen examining the mud sent up from the bottom for traces of gold and silver.

CAPTURED IN STORE.

Marion, O., Sept. 13.—With two cases packed with silks and furs valued at $1,000, two men, giving the names as John Williams, 30, of Dayton, and John R. Murphy, 37, Toledo, were captured in the dry goods store of J. H. Rawlings & Son.

GOVERNOR SEEKS TO OUST POOR AS MEMBER OF STATE UTILITIES

Columbus, O., Sept. 13.—Governor Donahay has requested Attorney General Crabbe to "institute ouster proceedings in the State Supreme Court for the purpose of determining the right of George T. Poor, Cincinnati, to hold office as a member of the State Utilities Commission." Poor is a Republican.

The governor today displaced Poor as chairman of the commission, designating C. C. Marshall, Sidney, Democratic member of the commission as chairman.

"In my opinion Mr. Poor's sworn ownership of the stock in the Cities Service Company, utterly disqualified him for membership on the commission. Under the opinion of the attorney general, however, I have not the authority to remove him for this cause," Governor Donahay declared in a formal statement.

In his letter to the attorney general, the governor said:

"I do not pretend to be versed in the fine points of the law, but plain old fashioned horse sense convinces me that since larger earnings thru higher rates of their Ohio utilities means larger earnings for the cities company, the said George T. Poor, through his admitted ownership of cities service stock, did acquire a pecuniary interest in certain Ohio utilities under his jurisdiction as a commissioner."

MARTIAL LAW IN STATE CONTINUES

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 13.—Flat rejection of Governor Walton's ultimatum that the sheriff, jury commission and police commissioner must resign before martial law is lifted in Tulsa County indicated today that the city will remain under military rule indefinitely.

The governor told the chamber of commerce he would withdraw troops as soon as officials he charged with being dominated by the Ku Klux Klan, quit.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—Heroism of Patrolman Edward Murray saved the life of an unknown little girl, but it nearly cost him his own life. Murray saw the girl dart into the street in front of an approaching auto. A quick dive and a shove placed the child out of danger, but the auto hit Murray, knocking him unconscious. He will recover.

REVOLUTIONARY REVOLT THREATENS TO SWEEP SPAIN; ALARM FELT

Leaders of Military Coup Demand Resignation of Cabinet—Trouble Starts at Barcelona Where Garrison Rebels—King to Take Hand

Madrid, Spain, Sept. 13.—Beginning with a garrison mutiny at Barcelona, a revolutionary revolt began in Spain today. The cabinet defied the leader. A special note was issued by the ministers dealing with the situation and asking the people to remain calm. The revolutionaries demanded the cabinet's resignation.

"Only bayonets will drive us out," was the reply. The note added:

"After careful consideration we have decided to remain at our posts. Otherwise we would not be faithful to the nation."

The revolutionaries were reported to have seized telephone and telegraph lines over a wide stretch of territory. Interrupted communication made it difficult to estimate the size of the movement.

It is understood the Seville and Saragossa garrisons have joined the revolutionary leaders.

London, Sept. 13.—A military revolution has broken out in Spain, according to word from Madrid this afternoon.

King Alfonso is rushing to Madrid to intervene.

It is reported the Spanish cabinet will resign.

The trouble started at Barcelona, in Catalonia where the garrison rebelled. General Rivera, the commandant and the captain-general of Catalonia declared martial law.

Appeals were issued to all the garrison commanders in Spain to do like wise to maintain order and prevent a coup by Socialists and Laborites.

The commander of troops in the Catalonia military district is said to be directing the revolutionary movement. A number of public buildings at Barcelona were seized. Numerous labor leaders were arrested for threatening a general strike.

A proclamation issued pledging loyalty of the troops to King Alfonso but accusing the present cabinet of "wrecking the country."

ACTION UNCERTAIN IN BROKERAGE CASE

Cincinnati, Sept. 13.—Federal officials yesterday afternoon ended their investigation into the affairs of the defunct brokerage house of Beazel and Chaffield, recalling the junior partner, former state Senator William H. Chaffield, Jr., to the stand. The firm failed last March.

Following the hearing before Bankruptcy Referee Charles T. Grove, District Attorney Benson W. Hough stated that he was not certain what action would be taken although he admitted his assistant, Haveth E. Mau, had been assigned to listen in.

Mr. Chaffield in 1922 was a nominee for the lieutenant-governorship of Ohio.

DENIAL IS MADE BY FRENCH NATION

Paris, Sept. 13.—A flat denial that France is negotiating with Germany on the Ruhr and reparations, or that Premier Poincare's policy has changed in the slightest degree, was made by an official of the French government.

American readers should know that a reparations settlement is no nearer now than it was on Jan. 11, when France occupied the Ruhr. Germans may cease their "passive resistance," which has become a sort of fetish to the parlor politicians, but this does not mean that the reparations problem is solved, for Germany is in far worse shape to pay now than prior to the occupation of the Ruhr.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. ELECTS.

Columbus, Sept. 13.—Miss Anna Gordon, Evanston, Ill., president of the World W. C. T. U., was re-elected president of the National W. C. T. U. Mrs. Ella A. Boole, Brooklyn, and Mrs. Frances P. Parks, Evanston, Ill., were re-elected vice president at large and corresponding secretary respectively.

ASSASSINS SEIZED.

Lisbon, Sept. 12.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate Premier Da Silva of Portugal. The premier was leaving the ministry building when he was attacked by three syndicalists, who were arrested.

TURKS AND GREEKS CLASH.

Athens, Sept. 12.—Four Turks were killed and several wounded during a clash between Turkish and Greek troops on the Maritza river, according to information from Salonika today.

A despatch from Madrid late this afternoon said that garrisons through out all Spain were rallying to the support of the Catalanian revolt. The Catalanian union telegraphed to the premier, demanding Catalanian autonomy. The premier reported he had recognized the importance of the matter and promised to bring it before parliament.

A despatch from Madrid at 3:20 this afternoon said the revolution was spreading rapidly.

REHABILITATION WORK IN JAPAN TO START SOON

Cremation of Bodies Continues—Officials Express Thanks

Tokio, Sept. 13.—Vice Minister Tanaka Gaimusho called on American Ambassador Cyrus E. Woods today to officially thank the United States for the leading part that the nation has taken in rushing help to the stricken area of Japan.

The cremation of bodies continues throughout Tokio and Yokohama. Debris is being cleared away as rapidly as possible and the actual work of rehabilitation is expected to start within a week or ten days.

An official investigation is being made of Yokohama harbor to determine whether the upheaval of the port bottom will interfere with the future activity and usefulness of the once great Japanese seaport.

Tokio presents a gruesome scene. The silence of the devastated sections is depressing. In spite of the efficient work of the sanitary corps many bodies still remain in plain view among the ruins.

Slight earth tremors continue to instill fear in the hearts of thousands of refugees. However, no material damage has resulted from these quakes.

The youngest daughter of American trade commissioner E. G. Babbitt was trapped in the lobby of the Grand hotel here at the time of the great earthquake and perished in the flames that subsequently mantled the building.

Mrs. Babbitt who was undergoing a massage treatment when the terrible shock struck, had a miraculous escape when she was led by another daughter through flying wreckage and falling debris to a place of safety in the open street.

American Commercial Attache Abbott's family escaped harm. First reports had it that it was Abbott's daughter who was burned to death in the ruins of the Grand hotel but is now established beyond a doubt that the unfortunate girl was the youngest daughter of Trade Commissioner Babbitt.

Food is plentiful throughout the earthquake and fire region. So far no serious outbreak of pestilence has taken place.

POLICE NIP PLOT ON BOGUS TICKETS

New York, Sept. 13.—An extensive but poorly executed plot to flimflam the public with fake Dempsey-Firpo fight tickets was nipped, but evidently not before many tickets had been sold, by a raid of detectives on a downtown printing plant. Six thousand of the bogus pasteboards, poor imitations of the real ringside $27.50 and $5 seat tickets, were seized, together with plates from which they were printed. Five men and a boy, charged with printing and selling them, were locked up at police headquarters. The ramifications of the plot extended to Boston, Philadelphia and nearby cities, and the police there were notified by wire by Promoter Tex Rickard of the big scheme.

COLLECTS $119.20 ON ALLEGED CHARGE

Findlay, O., Sept. 13.—Thomas Linger, prominent grain dealer, will get $119.20 from Mayor Harry Rodabaugh for alleged false imprisonment, under a verdict on file in common pleas court today.

The suit in which Linger asked for $10,000 was the outcome of his imprisonment following failure to pay a fine of $50 assessed by the mayor for nonpayment of a city water bill. He was held in the city jail for one day and night.

DOG GIVES ALARM WHEN BARN BURNS CAUSING $5,000 LOSS

The barking of the family dog aroused members of the family of L. R. Pearson near Osborn Wednesday night when fire of unknown origin completely destroyed a barn and contents with a loss estimated at $5,000.

Aroused by the dog, Pearson was able to save a Dodge touring car which he backed from the burning barn an instant before the hay now crashed in. The fire started about 9:30 o'clock and Pearson investigated after the family rolled had come to the door barking the second time.

The barn, a frame structure, was entirely destroyed with all contents with the exception of the motor, including 12 tons of alfalfa, 40 tons of timothy, 140 bushels of wheat, a tractor, binder and other farm implements and some harness and other farm equipment. The volunteer fire departments from Osborn, Fairfield and Wilbur Wright Field answered the call for assistance and succeeded in saving the house and other buildings from destruction. Bucket brigades were formed to fight the flames.

With the exception of a few chickens no livestock was lost. Only a small amount of insurance was carried.

Prince, of Troy, mother of Horace Prince, of this city and Mr. Prince's sister, Mrs. Samuel Evans of Troy, were both painfully hurt when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by an automobile driven by Herbert Van Arsdale, Dayton, on the Dayton and Troy pike near Dayton, Wednesday afternoon.

Studebaker Light-Six
Touring Car
$995

Don't Measure This Car By the Price

There is no product where price so fails to indicate value as in a motor car.

The difference in prices rarely represents a corresponding difference in values. Cars are being offered at prices greatly in excess of the Studebaker Light-Six which do not equal its intrinsic value.

Likewise, many cars selling for less, are high-priced compared with the Light-Six. They are not in the same class because they do not represent as great intrinsic value for the money invested. The Studebaker Light-Six is the real quality car in the thousand-dollar field.

The low price of the Light-Six is due to Studebaker's vast physical and financial resources, the saving of middlemen's profits by reason of complete manufacture in Studebaker plants, and low manufacturing and sales overhead per car because of continuous large volume.

The satisfaction delivered by the Light-Six is universal. Its performance has won staunch friends everywhere. This is due to its advanced design and construction.

For example, the crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces. This practice, which is largely responsible for its virtual freedom from vibration, is exclusive with Studebaker on cars within hundreds of dollars of the Light-Six price.

If you are thinking of investing about one thousand dollars in a car, then in justice to yourself, consider the Studebaker Light-Six first. Come in and see it. Drive it yourself. Driving is believing.

BURNS OIL IN ANY STOVE

Cheaper than Coal or Wood— Gives Twice the Heat in Half the Time

A wonderful new burner which works in any coal or wood stove or furnace is the proud achievement of the International Heating Company, 119 South Fourteenth St., Dept. 3367, St. Louis, Mo. This remarkably simple and inexpensive invention heats stove and oven in half the time and does away with all the dirt, ashes and drudgery of using coal or wood. It gives one of the hottest and quickest fires known, controlled by a simple valve. It can be put into any stove in a few minutes. The present high price of coal makes it a great money saver. NO "ENTANGLING" ALLIANCE FOR US.

"America First" is going to remain the dominant feature of the government's foreign policy under the Coolidge administration, according to all indications. The communication which Secretary of State Hughes has transmitted to American embassies abroad for their guidance on the matter of reparations, the authoritative indication of President Coolidge's attitude on foreign debts owed to the United States, and information from the White House concerning the President's stand on other foreign questions are to be judged primarily with relation to their bearing on American interests. It goes without saying that the question of justice in dealings between other nations themselves, is to be of paramount consideration, and it may be added that humanitarian considerations will not be minimized. But the Coolidge administration will not lose sight of the fact that its first duty is to the people of the United States. Internationalists who believe it is America's duty to sacrifice the interests of its citizens, as well as American independence, for the benefit of mankind probably will not find much consolation. Likewise, foreign statesmen who may have hoped that President Coolidge would make haste to involve the United States in the present European crisis will be disappointed.

"WHAT DO I THINK? IT'S A WASTE OF MONEY!"

Calvin Coolidge never has been a spendthrift. He always has lived within his rather limited means. Economy has ruled his life. And in holding various public offices he has been as sparing in spending the taxpayers' money as he has been in spending his own. He never has known luxury or craved for it. It is recalled that when he was the party's nominee for Vice President in 1920 he was sent on a campaign speaking trip. A special train was provided for his tour to several states. It was a train with regular beds, shower baths, a barber shop and other modern conveniences. With pride an official showed Mr. Coolidge through the train from one end to the other.

"What do you think of it?" he was asked at the end of the inspection.

"I think it is a waste of money," was his astonishing reply.

BURNING MINE STILL RESISTS EFFORTS TO PUT OUT BLAZE.

The Summit Hill, Pa., Burning Mine, perhaps the most famous curiosity in the entire anthracite region, and which was discovered on February 15, 1859, near the very spot where Philip Ginter, the lonely hunter, discovered anthracite in 1791, is still on fire, and is slowly making its way westward toward the mammoth coal vein running through the Panther Creek Valley, said to be the richest vein of anthracite in the world.

The subterranean conflagration has traveled more than a mile since it was first discovered, and since that time has devoured hundreds of thousands of tons of the best and finest grade of anthracite, estimated to be worth several millions of dollars.

The mine in which the fire started was opened for operation in 1850, more than seventy-three years ago, and millions of dollars have since been spent by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, the owner of the land on which the fire is raging, in a vain effort to stop the progress of the fire.

The burning mine has virtually devoured all the rich layer of anthracite in the vicinity of Summit Hill, so that there is no more coal being mined on the hill. All the coal now being mined is taken from the rich veins running through the Panther Creek Valley, more than half a mile below Summit Hill.

Thousands of people annually visit Summit Hill to see the burning mine, and there isn't an excursionist coming over the Switchback Railroad, or any other way, that would think of leaving it without seeing the burning mine. If the tourist happens to come at the right time he will be rewarded by seeing the fire, while, at other times, he will see nothing more than thin sheets of vapor and steam issuing through the crevices in the earth.

Almost every housekeeper makes a few changes in her home as September comes around. Although she may not be able to afford papering and painting, she can at least make some inexpensive improvements along the lines of interior decoration.

It is surprising what a difference even the simplest changes make in our homes. Unconsciously our eyes weary of the familiar hangings, or of a certain arrangement of furnishings. We welcome fresh surroundings.

Of course I do not mean that our ornaments and furniture should be discarded for new; for our possessions become dear to us, a part of ourselves. I simply mean that they should be differently arranged, from time to time, and given a new background.

I believe that the housekeeper should change the color scheme of her living room every five years. The other rooms of the house do not matter as much—unless we except the dining room; but the living room is the gathering-place of the family and is used more than any other room. It should never be allowed to become monotonous and uninviting.

"But how can I change it when I can't afford to buy new cretonnes?" responded a Housekeeper Friend of mine, to whom I had expounded this theory.

I made, with her, a tour of inspection, going from first to third floor of her pretty little home. "There," I said triumphantly, as I reached her bedroom door: "Why not hang those cretonne overdrapes at the living room windows, and put the living room ones up here?"

Her bedroom color scheme was pink and gray (pink wall paper, rag rugs, bureau-runner and lamp shade and gray cretonne overdrapes in a leaf pattern).

She took my advice, using old blue and gray in the living room. The former bedroom draperies were most dignified downstairs. The brown ones which had been in the living room looked equally well up in her room, with the pink things.

YOUTH

With the lift of a song on his lips
And the glint of the sun in his eye,
Which seldom a frown will eclipse
A roguish fellow goes by.

You can tell by the tilt of his head
By the charm of his voice and its tone,
By the grace and the spring of his tread,
That never a care has he known.

His shoulders are broad and full square,
His back is as straight as a pine,
The color's still fresh in his hair
Which has long ago faded from mine.

Here is youth, clean and supple and strong;
Here is unburdened youth, passing by—
Oh, the years have been many and long
Since such a young fellow was I.

Yet time was I sang as does he,
And time was I laughed as I went;
Now age with its cares burdens me
And the best of my courage is spent.

Brave boy, sing your songs while you may,
Too soon you shall look back as I,
When your temples are wearing the gray
And some roguish young fellow goes by.

Today's Talk

THE CUP OF BEAUTY

Nature is lavish in her gifts to him who is able to understand and appreciate.

To him she would bare her heart and open every window and door and bid him enter it as his very own. She would throw her soul at his feet and completely surrender her bodily life.

And then she would offer her immortal drink—the cup of beauty.

But there is no one who has ever drained it to its last. For beauty, more intoxicating than any wine, increases in its volume the more it is drained. Drink and you shall be exquisitely refreshed—though never quite fully satisfied.

It is this unexpressed, mysterious element of the unrevealed that inspires the poet, the painter, the musician, the artist, to seek heavenly quests and to want an intimate and continual touch with the personality of the Creator.

Just look into the night sky tonight. Do you tire of its beauty? Could the stars ever grow old in their fascinating appeal, their eternal silence?

Can you explain the diamond, the ruby, the emerald, the opal? Have you any answer for the gypsy dress of the pansy?

Remember that the tiniest songster drinks from the same cup of beauty that you do. And he, too, is never satisfied. Day upon day will he attempt to quench his thirsty soul, though never succeeding—for his song will be of him a part so long as life is his.

God's hear is a cup of beauty, and only as we drink from it in humility and in reverent faith, are we worthy to qualify as citizens of the Universe.

Strive as we will, still there remains in longing that which we cannot explain—though we know in our heart of hearts that beauty has entered the form and fiber of our being and made of us something useful and helpful in the world.

BISHOP WELCH SAFE.

Delaware, O., Sept. 12.—Friends here have had a cablegram from Bishop Herbert Welch, former president of Ohio Wesleyan university, stating that he and his family are safe in Japan. Much concern was held for Bishop Welch's safety.

How Mothers Friend aids Expectant Mothers at Child-birth

THERE are thousands of expectant mothers who undergo much useless suffering for months before, as well as at the moment when delivery occurs. These months of suffering, with nerves and vital organs weakened, leave their effect upon the child. An eminent physician found the way to stop much of this unnecessary suffering—the same easy way which thousands of mothers have used for three generations.

Mrs. Walter S. Hadley, Bridgeport, Ind., says: "Before my little boy came I was so paralyzed in my hips and limbs I could hardly walk, and some days after a little extra exertion I couldn't walk a step. I felt it coming on this time; in fact, I could hardly get up when I sat down, but now, after using one bottle of Mother's Friend, I am so much better. I feel that I almost owe my life to Mother's Friend."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally to the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates remarkably, permitting the easier relaxation and distension of muscles, nerves, tissues and ligaments, and their constant easier readjustment during expectancy and at child-birth. Have no more fear or dread, mother! Start using "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor, because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

Time Thins O. V. I. Ranks Veterans Session Shows

A touch of pathos rang through the impassioned speech of John W. Hedges, of Xenia, delivered from the floor of the fifty-fourth annual convention of the Seventy-fourth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry at the afternoon session in the rooms of Lewis Post, G. A. R. Court House Wednesday.

Answering the movement that two years ago resulted in the veterans of the civil conflict relinquishing the wheel of their organization to a group of women composed of daughters of members, Mr. Hedges declared that the members 52 years ago had pledged to keep the association intact and that to drop the burden on the shoulders of the women was not keeping faith with those who died.

Time had convinced members of the little band able to meet in convention, that they should lean more heavily on the shoulders of a younger generation in order to preserve the association. They took action this way in the vote when they re-elected all officers. They are: Mrs. Mary Wetzel Pace, Dayton, president; Mrs. C. C. Moon, Jamestown, vice president; Mrs. Nolla Barnett Bickett, secretary; J. H. McPherson, treasurer and Miss Amy St. John, chairman of the executive committee. Mr. Hedges declined the office of permanent honorary chairman to which he was elected two years ago and to which he was re-elected last year.

Mrs. Moon presided at the sessions Wednesday in place of Mrs. Pace and in the afternoon, after a brief morning business session during which the report of the treasurer, J. H. McPherson, was given the little band of 11 present held memorial services for four who died during the past year. They were William Wilson, Company T, Philip Iman, Company A, H. H. Long, Company A, and W. S. Sellers, Company E.

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church conducted a campfire in the afternoon, addressing the veterans and leading them in old songs. The Rev. Mr. Nocka, of Louisville, spoke briefly and John Lauder, Dayton, of the Thirty-fifth Infantry, gave reminiscences of Civil War days. T. J. North, Vandalia, replied to the welcoming address made Wednesday morning by Judge H. L. Smith, president of the City Commission.

Although only 11 veterans registered at the convention, more than that number sent regrets and were there in spirit when their letters were read. Of the 1200 original members of the Regiment, 700 were from Greene County and about 150 from Xenia. Of the total number only a little more than 100 still live. Comrades present Wednesday were: H. H. Cassell, David Benard, Michael Benard and T. J. North, Vandalia; Nelson Smith, Jamestown; John DeVoe, Wilmington; Henry Hopping, Spring Valley; John Murphy, Celina; George W. Moore, J. W. Hedges and J. H. McPherson, of Xenia.

Letters were read from J. R. Milner, California; H. H. Herring, Minnesota; S. W. Collins, Indiana; Harrison Galloway, Ohio; William T. Weimore, Illinois; H. R. Tinsley, Indiana; R. C. Parr, Iowa; John Curry, Ohio; J. A. Sheffield, Oregon; Thomas Busch, Indiana; Robert Baker, Kansas and Edward C. Snyder, Indiana. There were letters also from Mrs. Julia Galloway, Ohio and Mrs. William Gray, daughters of former members.

Jane Matilda Wood

Jane Matilda Wood, daughter of Isaac and Rhoda Stump was born near New Burlington, Ohio June 23, 1853 and departed this life September 7, 1923, aged 70 years, 2 months and 16 days. Twenty six years of her life was spent on the farm of her father, most of which time, was spent in caring for the invalid father, mother and brother. July 3, 1879 she was united in marriage to Joshua Wood, who preceded her in death, 3 1/2 years ago. To this union were born seven children, six of whom survive—Charles, Harry and Florence at home, Mrs. Roy Harvey of New Burlington, Mrs. Horace Wharton and Mrs. C. F. Vickers of Dayton; beside these she leaves five grandchildren, one brother and a number of nephews and nieces.

The life that has just closed was filled with many trials and hardships. For twelve years she has been in failing health, the last four years of her life being absolutely helpless. But through it all she has borne her affliction patiently.

A week ago she developed pneumonia and in her weakened condition she was unable to resist it, and on Friday evening as the sun was going to rest, she quietly slipped away.

During her early life she was converted and attended the Methodist church. In after years she became a member of the Home Department of the Friends Church, being a member about 25 years. She enjoyed the friendship of numbers of people and greatly enjoyed their visits during her last illness.

There is a world above where parting is unknown, A long eternity of love, Formed for the good alone, And faith beholds the dying here Translated to that happier sphere.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness in the sickness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. Jane Wood, Roy Hawkins for his beautiful comforting words, those who sent flowers or helped us in any way, also Birch Arthur the undertaker for the way in which he conducted the funeral. Miss Florence Wood, Charles Wood, Harry Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harvey.

THE STUDEBAKER BIG-SIX SEVEN-PASSENGER TOURING CAR $1750

1924 Model Big-Six Again Leads in Intrinsic Value

Many motorists who have always insisted on the best in everything they buy, have discarded their heavy, bulky, high-priced cars and have replaced them with the Studebaker Big-Six. And they report that, in every way, it represents precisely their conception of what a really fine motor car should be. They are enthusiastic over their all-round satisfaction with the Big-Six because of its dependability, surplus power, extreme comfort for seven passengers, the completeness of its equipment and its fine appearance.

The series 24 model—the finest Big-Six Studebaker ever built—presents a value unapproached by other cars at any where near the price. And its nominal cost of operation is a source of continual satisfaction.

Everything for which one can wish in motoring convenience, comfort and utility has been provided—even to an extra disc wheel complete with tire, tube and tire cover; handsome nickel-plated bumpers, front and rear; automatic gasoline signal mounted on instrument board, and many other features.

The low price of the Big-Six is due to large volume, the fact that Studebaker overhead is shared by three models, the manufacture of all vital parts in Studebaker plants and Studebaker's last physical and financial resources.

After 71 years of service, the name Studebaker enjoys confidence and respect more than ever.

SQUIRREL SEASON OPENS SATURDAY NIMRODS NOTIFIED

Anticipating the advent of the first hunting season, when the open season on squirrels begins Saturday, September 15, Karl Keller, Deputy State Game Protector, has written advice to Nimrods, who expect to take advantage of the new season. He says:

"Saturday, September 15, opens the 1923 season on squirrels. The bag limit is five squirrels a day. There is a penalty of $25 to $200 for possessing more than five squirrels in any one day.

"The season will open next Monday, September 17, on wild ducks, geese and brant, plover, jack snipe, yellow legs, black billed and golden plovers, greater and lesser yellow legs, Wilson snipe or jacksnipe. Bag limit is 15 snipes that may be taken and possessed in any one day during the open season.

"Be sure and get your hunting license before going hunting. The fine for hunting without a license is $25 to $200. Be sure to get permission from those in charge of the lands upon which you wish to hunt. The fine for hunting without permission is $10 to $50. Don't destroy trees and shrubbery. Be careful of fences and live stock. Be careful also of fires and don't abuse the farmer if he refuses you permission to hunt. He may change his mind and grant you permission some other time. Don't try to bag all the game the first day and "cuss" if you fail to get the limit the next time you go hunting.

"Farmers are urged to grant permission when possible as a day afield with the gun affords real pleasure to those who are cooped up in an office, store or factory.

"Urging both the sportsmen and farmers to regard each other with friendship and requesting that any violations of the game laws that come to your notice be reported to me by mail or phone. I am yours for good, clean sport.

Karl Keller,"

Slaughter of the red squirrels in this section during the hunting season, is said to be justified by the fact that this type of squirrel makes itself particularly objectionable by destroying the eggs and young of useful birds and spends much of its time searching out nests in the trees. Evidence against the red squirrel shows that his depredations are such as to make it necessary to keep down his number if insectivorous birds are to flourish.

The late John Burroughs said: "Nearly all the birds look upon it as their enemy and attack and annoy it when it appears near their breeding haunts. Thus I have seen the pewee, the cuckoo, the robin and the wood thrush pursuing it with angry voices and gestures. If you wish the birds to breed and thrive in your orchards and groves, kill every red squirrel that infests the place."

PRINCE OF WALES NOW IN CANADA

Quebec, Que., Sept. 12.—Traveling incognito as "Lord Renfrew," the Prince of Wales arrived here today to visit his Canadian ranch. No salutes were fired as the liner Empress of France swung into her docks and the only mark of official attention was a seaplane which hovered over the ship as she steamed into her berth.

The pier was strongly guarded by police.

The prince's wish, expressed by wireless, that he be treated like an unknown citizen, was fully respected, and there were only a couple of hundred people at the docks, including newspaper reporters and photographers.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

PRIDE PREVENTS APPEALING FOR HELP

Chapter XXVI

By sewing constantly I was able to keep the two rooms and care for my two little girls. Occasionally I received a remittance from Paul, never more than $25 or $30 always with the information that his living cost was more than I would believe. I told him it was also growing more expensive at home explained that I was sewing. He replied that he was glad I had found something to occupy my time, but otherwise I might be lonely. Then added:

"Don't work too hard. I'll be home soon and then we'll really live."

I longed to help in war work, as Evelyn and others were doing, but it was impossible. Just to care for the children, earn the necessary money was all I could do, all my health would allow. When I spoke of it to Evelyn she said:

"You are doing your bit, Ruby. God will give you just as much credit as if you knit sweaters or managed a canteen."

But I often wondered how many wives were situated as I was, wives who because of the absence of the wage earner had to put aside even their patriotism to care for the family left behind?

I often wondered also if Paul would come home with more stability, of character, a more generous view of his fellows a different attitude toward life. In spite of my suffering, for I did suffer, I still loved Paul. I longed to have him with me. I had long ago given up my friends, all but Evelyn Markham I had sacrificed them on the altar of Paul's irresponsibility.

Often I thought of appealing to father for help and as often dismissed the idea. I never would let him know to what straits I had been reduced. I had married Paul against his wishes and knew his ideas concerning a married man's supporting his family. Brother Tom was "over there" fighting. Sometimes I fancied it would be easier to bear if Paul were also fighting. His letters, short though they were, invariably carried the tone of gay times in his beloved Paris.

Assuredly, had Tom been at home I should have at least asked his advice. As it was I felt I must stand alone, sink or swim as might be. I craved sympathy and help. I received neither.

I was very unhappy, hard as I tried to conceal it. How can a woman, separated from her husband, her friends, constantly fretted by poverty—and worse, by uncertainty, be happy?

Occasionally as the months and years passed I received a larger check from Paul. Once he sent me $100. But dared not halt in my efforts for a moment. His remittances were too uncertain, too long a time often passed between them.

I knew there was excitement all about me, that never had people been so aroused as they were in the midst of the great war; yet, livid as detached an existence as if all the world were at peace behind closed doors.

I had grown thin, old-looking. I was shabby had made over my clothes until there was no longer anything I could do with them. I went nowhere, unless it was to return work given; age; then I went after dark when misshapiness might perhaps be less noticeable. The children had to be kept looking nicely. Joan had declared she would run away if she couldn't have things other girls had, look as well. She frightened me. I knew she was capable of making her threat good, so spent nothing on myself that I might give her more. I did not want her to be embarrassed before her young friends.

Joan was growing very like Paul. She loved the niceties of life, was inclined to be snobbish, thought good, knew, she had no reason. Like her father, she argued she had always had things, should continue to.

There was little of interest happened to me in those long years of war, little to retail. One day, one month, one year, was just like the preceding one—a constant struggle.

Then one day there came a bulky letter from Paul.
